

Are you receiving me?

A useful entertainment for Mothers' Union meetings

The person speaking the text in Bold is a tall Diocesan president

The person speaking the text in italic is a medium size branch leader

The person speaking the bottom line of text is a small senior member who can do some really good character acting

Props: A posh MU bag, a regular MU bag and a bag from Tesco's or similar

I am the Diocesan president and I communicate down to them

I am the branch leader and I communicate up to her- but down to her

I am the branch member- if I listen to them I sometimes fall asleep

I travel miles to promote the Mothers' Union's interests

I organise outings and events and book a bus for us all to go

I love outings and trips- but sometimes I forget the date

I visit the branches and talk to them about Mary Sumner House

I listen with great interest

I have been known to snore

I went to the General meeting in September

I went to the general meeting last month and got lost

What's the General meeting?

I arrange Diocesan events for us all to attend

I encourage all members to attend

Well you know- my corns have been troubling me lately

I explain the new structures and how Mothers' Union works in four units

My members were a little confused, but now they understand the four units

I need new units- for my kitchen

I love to hear the news of Mothers Union Enterprises

I explain that in the diocese, literature now comes under marketing

I get my veg at the market on Saturdays

As Diocesan president I am co-ordinating our visit to Mary Sumner House

I am organising a group from my parish to join the party

Where's Mary Sumner House?

I read with great interest the press reports from World Wide council

I read with interest the press reports from Diocesan Council

I How do you spell PRESS? Is it one S or two?

I went to a retreat at our Diocesan Retreat House

I went to a deanery quiet afternoon

I clean the church when my time comes around

I am asked to speak at conferences

I can give a talk on our pilgrimage to Israel if a speaker doesn't turn up

I talk to the dog- but he just ignores me

I organise the Diocesan Carol Concert

I organise the branch Christmas Party

I hate making mince pies

I represented Mothers' Union at World Wide Council and was given this bag

I bought this bag at the Mothers' Union stall

I got mine free from Tesco

All our meetings should start with prayer

I know all meeting should start with prayer- I just wish someone else would say them some time

I would- but I usually forget my glasses

One feels the main purpose of this great movement is to uphold and promote the five objectives

I try to get all new members to learn the five Objectives

What are the five objectives?

I would like to stand for Worldwide Council

I would like to stand for Diocesan Council

I couldn't stand – it's my ruddy corns again

I think all members should stand for committee

I wish all members would stand for committee

I will- but not this year- maybe next

Diocese of Chester (U.K.) <http://www.mothersunionchester.co.uk/marketing.php>

If you feel the script is too long then edit and feel free to add your own lines for specific local (Australian) settings.